10,000 SAW DERBY

GREAT CROWD AT YESTERDAY'S RACES ENJOY GOOD SPORT

"WALTER DANT" WINNER

The Bethany Horse Made a Great Finish—Five Other Closely Contested Events Were On the Card

SATURDAY'S RACE EVENTS.

2:25 pace, purse of $300.

Half mile running race, purse of $75.

Half mile dash for county ponies, purse of $25.

Mule race, half mile, purse $25.

Special running race.

Fully 10,000 persons were in attendance at the fair yesterday afternoon to see the Maryville Derby, the big event of the race program, and with high class horses entered for the classic as well as for the other five races, the crowd found plenty of excellent sport. No other fair race meeting in recent years has provided the number of horses as has the meeting this year. The track had been worked down into good shape and little trace was left of the recent rains, horsemen declaring the going good.

In the Derby, the last race to be run, "Walter Dant," the big chestnut gelding owned by Dr. Harding & Co., of Bethany, although not looking the part of a Derby winner, was the talent's choice. "Cork," owned by Fred Breit of Parnell, was also heavily touted as the winner. The bunch of eight got off to a rather straggling start, with the favorite "Walter Dant" trailing the bunch the first time under the wire; at the half mile Hunt had moved his mount up to fourth place, with "Bob A," "Cork" and "Prime Mover" showing the way into the back stretch for the second time. Headed for the wire, "Walter Dant" found his stride and in a driving finish managed to beat "Bob A" a short length for first money; "Cork" finished third, close at the heels of "Bob A." The finish brought the crowd to its feet and cheers greeted the winner when he returned to be presented with a big silk flag. Considering the condition of the track at the time, 1:52¾ was considered good. Other starters in the race were: "Adeline L", Joe Prather, Bethany; "Prime Mover", W. M. Glover, Phoenix, Ariz.; "Dental", Mort Shepard, Platte City, Mo.; "Bessanta", J. A. Lowery, St. Joseph; and "Augustus Heinz," G. T. Neff, Bethany.

The first race of the afternoon's card was the 2:25 pace, five starters responding to the bell. "Don Sylvia", owned by Ed Brown of Bethany, was never in danger during the race and won easily in straight heats with plenty to spare. "Aquilin's Lady Earl", D. Clark Thomas, Knox City, Mo., second; "Pete Willis", J. E. Crews, Fayette, Mo., third; "Charline", W. M. Jackson, Omaha; and "Todd Woolsey", L. N. Miller, Maitland, also started.

The second race, a half mile dash for two year olds, furnished a whirlwind finish, with "Blue Girl" and "Maconi" under the wire heads apart; "Cheyenne", belonging to the Ben Jones stable was thrid a length away. Time 1:53½ "Goodenough" and "Lady Hester" also ran.

Five horses faced the barrier in the third race, a five furlongs event for all ages. The talent got down quickly on "Woodmaid", owned by Johnny Turpin of Brookfield, and never had to worry, for the bay mare led the field from start to finish, winning easily by several lengths. "Jane" was second, "Palatable" third. Time 1:08. "Joe Nugent" and "Copy Cat" also ran.

In the fourth event for five furlongs "Myrtle A", owned by B. W. Creech of Hopkins, piloted the way to the wire in front of a field of five, winning under a pull from "Crucible", with "Carl Roberts" finishing in third place. Time 1:07¾. "Gene Hoppis", "Nintu" and "Jim Palmer" also ran.

The talent fared badly in the fifth race, "Prospero's Baby" being first choice, and off to a good start, was leading all the way when "Inro", piloted by Hunt, was given his head coming down the stretch, driving under the wire a nose ahead of the favorite; "Callaway" was a close third. Time 1:21. "Bessanta", "Juvenile", "Closer" and "Karamaneh" also ran.

SCOTCH CATTLE CURIOSITY

Trio of Animals On Exhibition at the Fair Are From Aristocratic Strain — Imported "Just For Fun"

The West Highland (Scotch) cattle, owned by C. D. and E. F. Caldwell of Burlington Junction being exhibited at the fair for the benefit of the Red Cross, are the objects of much curiosity and is the only herd on the American continent.

The cattle came from the extreme north of Scotland and their hair grows to a length of from seven to fourteen inches. King George annually feeds as many as one hundred head of Highland steers for his own table. They command the highest prices in the London and Smithfield markets, steaks from this breed being most savory, tender and delicious. The Highlanders are a half wild breed and live on native foliage, mostly heather. Herds of the breed are maintained by most of the English lords and by the foremost landowners in England.

The trio shown here were imported "just for fun," said Mr. Caldwell, in speaking of them today, and to determine with what success they could be produced in the Missouri corn belt. A herd book for the registration of these cattle is maintained at Edinburg. The three on exhibition are duly recorded and are from the most aristocratic strains of the breed.

Mrs. M. P. Smith to Donate the Biggest of the Patch.

There will be a Red Cross benefit sale Sunday at the Sam Corrough farm near Arkoe, for the benefit of the Arkoe auxiliary, when the largest watermelon raised this year by M. P. Smith, will be auctioned off.

The watermelon patch of "Mort" Smith, near Arkoe, always produces some lucious ones and the biggest of the bunch weighs just a little less than 50 pounds. R. P. Hosmer of this city will be the auctioneer and the women of the auxiliary are hoping to have a big return from the sale.

HORSESHOWCROWDS

HIGH CLASS EVENTS PLEASED PATRONS OF THE FAIR

COMPETITION WAS KEEN

In the Class for Five-gaited Saddlers Ten Animals Were Entered—Other Classes Were Well Filled

The crowd at the horse show last night was nearly as great as the crowd that witnessed the races in the afternoon, close to 9,000 persons witnessing the various events. And it was a real horse show, with every class well filled and competition unusually keen. It was a welcome surprise to find instead of two or three animals in competition in each class, as has been the case for the past two years, to see as many as ten horses in some of the events before the judges. The appearance before the grand stand of the representatives of some of the best known stables in the country called for much favorable comment and much admiration for the individual animals. The night air was just a little crisp, but the crowd in the grand stand and packed along the rail and in the infield didn't mind. There were no waits, the program of horse show classes and free acts following each other in rapid succession, which also pleased the crowd.

A field of ten entries in the five-gaited saddle horse class gave Prof. E. A. Trowbridge a hard half hour in choosing the winner. No better lot of animals has ever been seen here and the crowd was at a loss to pick first choice—all of them looked good. "Powell Peavine", a beautiful bay gelding owned by Dempsey & Wood of Shelbina, was awarded first money; "King Woodland", owned by H. G. Quisenberry of Hamilton, getting second, with "Cousin Harry", owned by James Buford of Paris, Mo., being awarded third place. Other entries and owners in this class were: "Limestone McDonald" and "Etelka Blees", H. G. Quisenberry; "Winnie Davis" and "Queen Dido", Col. H. G. Munday, Maryville; "Raven Mac", "Dysart Bros. Savannah; "Who Had Thought It", H. B. Mudd, Monroe City, Mo.; "Caroline" and an unnamed horse, Gabe Johnson of Monroe City; "Royal Queen", Leonard Miller, Graham; "Johnnie Hook" and "I'm An Easter Cloud", James Buford, Paris, Mo.

In the class for single roadsters, Don Riley of St. Joseph, with "Jean Boegle" and "Dan Hur", was the choice of the crowd as soon as they made their appearance on the tanbark; three other classy animals, however, gave Mr. Riley some anxiety, but Judge Trowbridge confirmed the popular judgment with first and second ribbons to the St. Joseph horses. "Harry P", owned by Gabe Johnson of Monroe City got third. Other entries were: "King Woodland", H. G. Quisenberry, and "Queen Dido", Col. H. G. Munday.

In the fine harness horse class, single, saddle bred, an unnamed horse owned by Gabe Johnson of Monroe City was awarded first, with "Susan Francis", owned by James Buford of Paris, second, "Etelka Blees", H. G. Quisenberry, third. "Limestone McDonald" and an unnamed animal from the Buford stables were other entries in this event.

In the class for three-gaited saddlers owned in this or an adjoining county, "Raven Mac", a beautiful gray stallion owned by Dysart Bros., of Savannah, was awarded the blue ribbon, second and third places going to "Winnie Davis" and "Nancy H", owned by Col. Munday.

A class for shetland ponies in harness brought out two teams owned by Frank and Harold Roelofson, both being entered under the name of Roelofson Bros., the Maryville boys taking first and second money.

Morning Horse Show Results.

At the horse show this morning a good sized crowd witnessed the events. In the gaited saddle horse class Col. H. G. Munday was disqualified from further showing in any of the classes. Col. Munday, the recipient of the third ribbon, with "Winnie Davis", refused the ribbon and threw it on the ground. "Royal Queen", Leonard Miller of Graham, was first in this class, with "Raven Mac", Dysart Bros., Savannah, third. "Queen Dido" was also entered.

In the class for roadsters, pairs, trotters, Don Riley, driving "Jean Boe-

WILSON MAY VISIT MISSOURI

President Has Been Asked to Attend Dedication of State Capitol Building October 5

Jefferson City, Sept. 6.—A citizens' committee here is busy trying to induce President Wilson to visit the new capitol building of Missouri on the occasion of its dedication, October 5. It has been suggested to the president that if some other date in October would suit his convenience the date of the dedication will be changed accordingly. No definite reply has been received from Washington. In the meantime two former governors have been secured—Herbert S. Hadley of Colorado and Elliott W. Major of St. Louis.

The Democratic state committee will try and secure a visit of the president to Missouri some time during the campaign, and it is deemed not altogether improbable that between the invitation to take part in the dedication of the new capitol building and the request of the state committee, backed by the Missouri congressional delegation, that Missourians may have the pleasure of seeing and hearing the president this fall, and not a few of them of meeting him personally.

Jefferson City was named in honor of Thomas Jefferson, a great statesman from Virginia, the native state of President Wilson.

WASHINGTON WALKS

CAPITAL FEELS "PINCH" OF GARFIELD'S RIDELESS ORDER

PLAN FOR BIG WAR FUNDS

The New Revenue Bill and the Fourth Liberty Loan Must Provide Huge Sum—Labor Rolling In Wealth

(By W. C. Van Cleve)

Washington, Sept. 3.—Dr. Garfield has taken all the sun out of Sunday in this burg. Last Sunday was the first rideless day for auto owners and the request of the fuel administration was observed with good nature generally. The few who were disposed to break over in the early morning were stopped by a policeman who kindly took their names and their license numbers and bid them good speed on their day's outing. The "cop" didn't explain what he intended to do with the memorandum, but those who witnessed these proceedings suddenly decided that they had lost all taste for Sunday joyriding, anyway. The spacious streets of the nation's capital were about as quiet as the avenue of a well kept cemetery throughout the day. The already overburdened street cars furnished excellent exercise in elbowing, riding the waves of moving humanity, strap-hanging and toe-tramping. A few old surreys, stanhopes and other chaises of ancient architecture were brought forth, dusted off and put into use, and a good many bicycles were brought down from the garret. In addition to all this, walking was very, very good and it was a real pleasure to be able to cross the streets without danger or distress.

* * *

Mr. Kitchin, chairman of the ways and means committee of the house, today reported the new revenue bill, which is intended to raise more than eight billion dollars as against four billions in the present law. It is useless to undertake t odetail its various levies because nothing has apparently escaped. Excess profits and war profits are expected to yield $3,100,000,000, individual incomes about $1,500,000,000 and corporations taxes $828,000,000. On personal incomes the exemptions will be the same as at present, $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married persons. The rate of taxation, however, has been increased very materially, as may be seen from the following table:

Incomes	Tax Under Existing Law	Tax Under Proposed Law
$ 2,500	$ 10	$ 30
3,000	20	60
3,500	30	90
4,000	40	120
4,500	60	150
5,000	80	180
5,500	105	220
6,000	130	260
6,500	155	330
7,000	180	460

IS A SURVIVOR OF THE MAINE

Maj. Bennett, Announcer at the Fair, Was Member of Battleship's Crew —Served Uncle Sam 7 Years

This week is an unusual anniversary with Maj. Fred Bennett, official announcer at the fair, for just twenty years ago he left Portsmouth Navy Hospital at Portsmouth, Va., after having his life despaired of for nearly six months, following his survival of the explosion of the battleship Maine in Havana harbor.

Maj. Bennett is an old seaman and has seen seven years' service in Uncle Sam's navyand was a member of the crew of the ill-fated ship when it was blown up on February 15, 1898. Of the original forty-two survivors of the Spanish-American war sea tragedy, Maj. Bennett is one of the eight who are now living. In the explosion in which many lives were lost, Maj. Bennett sustained injuries which left him permanently disfigured with his face badly powder burnedand for six months his eyesight was despaired of.

Since the beginning of the present war Maj. Bennett has devoted a great part of time to patriotic work for the government in many war activities, including the navy recruiting service In Chicago, where he makes his home, his services have been in demand in connection with Liberty loans and other war drives. Maj. Bennett, while proud of his wounds received in the service, is too modest to tell of his experiences voluntarily and it is only by close questioning that he can be pursuaded to tell of the tragedy of the Maine.

ELMO BOY KILLED

WALTER BRADLEY MAKES THE SUPREME SACRIFICE

THE FAMILY IS NOTIFIED

Training at Camp Funston He Went to France Last March—Believed to Have Died From Wounds

Walter Bradley, a son of Mrs. Martha Bradley of Elmo, was killed in France July 15. The official message notifying Mrs. Bradley of the death of her son came this morning but did not state whether her son had been killed in action or died from wounds received.

Young Bradley went with the Nodaway county contingent to train at Camp Funston. He has been in France since last March and in active service a part of the time.

He leaves besides his mother two younger brothers and a sister, Wilson, Thomas and Jennie, all living at home.

Mrs. Bradley received regular letters from her son for several months after he went over and in all of them he wrote in a very cheerful strain and was in good health. The supposition is that the young man died from wounds received while in action.

The entire evening was quite chilly and overcoats and furs were in evidence with the people attending the horse show at the county fair last night.

FRENCH FIGHTING THEIR WAY FORWARD SOUTHWEST OF LAON TO BIG GERMAN BASE

ALL PARIS EXPECTANT

Important Developments Opposite the Southern End of the Hindenburg Line Indicate An Important Move by the Allied Armies

BULLETIN.

Paris, Sept. 6.—The Allied lines are now so close to the southern end of the Hindenburg line that heavy guns can be heard bombarding Laon and Lafere, the two chief pillars on which the southern end rests. Chauny, east of Noyon, is three-quarters surrounded and its fall is likely at any minute.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, Sept. 6.—The British have advanced from one to two miles on a twenty mile front in Flanders. South of Peronne the British line has been advanced to Matiny. The British also have gained ground west of Armentierres. The French forces are fighting their way forward southwest of Laon and are approaching the southern end of the Hindenburg line at St. Gobain. Between the Somme and the Oise at the back of the hills known as Outrecourt Massif has been captured by the French. The Allied forces are now only between two and three miles from Chaulnecy. The Austrians are reinforcing the Germans on the western front, four Austrian divisions having been identified.

On the center of the fighting front the British have established themselves on the Somme canal as far as Ham and good progress is being made everywhere. On the northern bank of the Ailette the French are now fully established in positions taken from the Germans. Important developments are taking place opposite the southern end of the Hindenburg line.

The advance of General Mangin's Franco-American army on the Aisne is already putting the left end of the Hindenburg line under strong pressure. The British have smashed the right end and all Paris is breathless, expecting the most important developments.

Large numbers of American wounded are now arriving at the Paris hospitals. They say that some German machine gunners took fright and ran when attacked, but that others stood up and gave battle.

Paris, Sept. 6.—On the Aisne-Vesle battle front the Americans have carried their lines up to the outskirts of Villers-en-Prayeres on the southern bank of the Aisne, fifteen miles east of Soissons, the French war office announced this afternoon. Glennes, about eighteen miles east of Soissons, has been occupied by the Americans, while on the Revillon slope the French have advanced closer to Ham at sev-

FAIR NOTES.

Miss Kate Ray of Hannibal, Mo., riding for the Buford Stable at last night's horse show put her mount through all the paces in a manner that excited the admiration of the crowd Miss Ray is an expert horsewoman and is a favorite at the big fairs and horse shows.

Miss Bertha Hemry of Hamilton, riding Limestone McDonald, the handsome black from the Quisenberry stable failed to get inside the money in the class for five gaited saddlers, and had to be content with seeing her mount's stable mate, "King Woodland" take second place. The crowd would have liked to have given the blue ribbon to Miss Hemry.

Saturday will be the biggest day of the fair according to the fair managers and horsemen, all of whom are anxious to get in on all the events that had to be postponed on account of the bad weather early in the week.

Supt. F. P. Robinson of the horse show is to be congratulated on the promptness with which the classes in the horse show appeared. There were no waits and every rider bore the number corresponding with the program.

Fair patrons as well as exhibitors are expressing appreciation of the efforts of the management to provide something worth while. With good weather the attendance during the week would have broken all records for there was plenty to see and something doing all the time.

The Toki Japs in their juggling, balancing and wire acts are easily the top-notchers on the program of free acts. One act booked by the fair management, the Twirling Talbots, was cancelled on account of the draft taking one of its members.

Mrs. J. W. Shroyer of this city is the second in winning numbers, and carried off 28 premiums for bread, cakes and fruits. Mrs. Shroyer has been known for years as one of the very finest cusines in the county and whenever she makes any entries at the county fairs or similar exhibitions is sure of winning a string of blue ribbons.

The concession men on the "midway" having been glum and gloomy for two days because of the rain and slim crowds, livened up good today and the spielers could be heard for blocks making up for lost time.

"Midnight", the wonderful high school horse shown by Quisenberry of Hamilton, among other accomplishments, passed aroun a collection box last night for the Red Cross and collected $42.60, all of which he presents to the local chapter. The Boy Scouts helped him by taking in the coins from the people in the grand stand, which Midnight could not reach.

In the food conservation booth, which is always surrounded by an interested bunch, Miss Beal and Miss Carpenter are assisted by Mrs. E. T. Dale, Misses Mabel Curnutt, Louise Rowlett, Greta Kemp, Laura Curfman and Wave Hulet, all of whom assisted Miss Beal, county chairman of the home training course. One of the best parts of their exhibit is the maps showing the route over which the sugar and other food stuffs must be transported from other countries and why so much depends on the U. S. supply.

The two women riders, Miss Kate Ray of Hannibal and Miss Bertha Hemry of Hamilton, Mo., have been drawing a great deal of attention and admiration for their grace and skill. Miss Hemry was the little woman in black who rides for H. G. Quisenberry and last night her mount was "Limestone McDonald," a beautiful black. Miss Ray, "the woman in gray," was mounted on "Susan Francis," her own horse, which responds to her slightest touch with a grace equal to her owner and rider.

Charles R. Hall, nationally famous artist of Seattle, Wash., who was in Maryville last fall for a couple of weeks with an exhibition of pictures, has returned to his old home county again and is attending the county fair this week.

He has had many experiences in his world travels but was never taken for a "smelling committee" until he landed at the fair Wednesday. Being alone and not widely acquainted he spent much of his time in Floral Hall Wednesday looking over the various exhibits, and he took a great interest in the food conservation booth. For this reason, the women in charge decided he was a government inspector and indulged in little shivers of fear thinking maybe they were not doing their demonstarting just right. However, when they all became acquainted it was a case of mutual enjoyment.

Mr. Hall is spending a few weeks with his uncle, Gool Griffey, and family of Clearmont, while doing some paintings for C. D. Caldwell of Burlington Junction.

In some cases, such as liquors and other non-essential business, many no doubt will be taxed out of business, but in the main the effort has been made to raise the largest possible amount with the least embarrassment to business, except those engaged in war contracts who will have to disgorge the greater part of their earnings The bill will pass the house in ten days or two weeks, but the senate may not act so promptly.

* * *

The fourth Liberty Loan campaign will soon be on and it will be the largest yet undertaken. It is proposed to raise a total of six billion dollars and the source from which it will come furnishes a subject for more or less speculation. That it will come, and come promptly, there is no doubt, but there will be a considerable shifting of the sources of available cash.

That the treasury department expects a large subscription from the general public is evident from the fact that it has printed a total of 35,000,000 separate bonds for the drive. It is not likely that the small business and professional men of the country at large who are generally the leaders in public enterprises and the first to subscribe to worthy projects will be able to do as well as they have heretofore. A good many have about gone their limit, for the present at least, and some lines of business are practically at a standstill until the end of the war. Building operations, for instance, in the cities are confined to government work. There is nothing doing for the contractors, nothing for the architects, and but little for the lumbermen, the brick men, builder's hardware and the numerous allied lines. The workmen have largely gone to other cities and the shipyards. Chicago is said to have lost more than a hundred thousand men and vacant houses are numerous because of the exodus of laborers to cities with war contracts.

City lawyers have been hard hit. Litigants are gone and their business with them. Government control of the railroads has practically destroyed a lucrative practice among certain damage case attorneys and railroad lawyers; there is little for the title examiners, little for the abstractors and the civil rights bill has left the collection attorneys without a leg to stand on. So it is with other branches of the legal profession.

The farmers subscribed more liberally to the third loan than heretofore and will no doubt do so again where their crops have not been destroyed. Labor is enjoying abnormally high wages at present and will be asked to invest freely in Liberty Bonds. Workmen in shipyards, steel mills, munition factories, on railroads and war workmen generally are literally rolling in wealth and should absorb a large block of the fourth issue.

In fact of an eight billion dollar tax bill, which makes heavy demands on great wealth, it remains to be seen how the very rich will respond. The three and a half cent bonds are bringing a higher price in the markets than the other issues for the reason that they are wholly tax free and there is a certain point at which those of large incomes find it more profitable to have tax-free bonds at three and a half per cent than four or four and a quarter cent bonds subject to income taxes.

Large corporations, having to pay their taxes in actual money and to provide for their own extensions and improvements have, many of them, begun to pay their dividends in stock or have cut them down to the lowest point in order to conserve the money on hand.

It is a feat worth noting that this country, with its vast resources, can undertake to raise by taxation eight billions and to sell in one year ten or more billions in bonds when the total cash in the United States does not exceed five and a half billion dollars. Such a thing is possible only through its great prosperity and the rapid movement of the dollars.

THOUGHT ONE CLEAN SHIRT ALL HE NEEDED

"Ten years ago I was reduced to a mere shadow. I was as yellow as a gold piece and would often be doubled up with the most excruciating pains in my stomach. Physicians could only relieve me with morphine. I was advised to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it helped me at once. What is more, I have been well ever since. A friend said he thought one more clean shirt all I would ever wear." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Maryville Drug Co., and sold by druggists everywhere. Adv.

SLIM PICKING FOR LAWYERS

Outlook for Members of Profession Not Bright — War Has Changed Status of Litigation Matters

Jefferson City, Sept. 6.—Old lawyers have noted that the outlook for new lawyers was never more unfavorable than since this country declared war. Many of the young lawyers are now in the army. In fact, a very large per cent of the graduates from the law schools since war was declared joined some branch of service before they received their licenses from the supreme court. The state board of law examiners made arrangements to give such students special examinations before the school closed in order to enable those who could pass examinations to secure their licenses in advance. These young lawyers never had a chance to try any cases in the courts of the state before they were handed rifles in the training camps and they have not had any opportunities since to practice their profession.

The successful practice of law is said to be growing more difficult than ever since the war began. Damage suits against railroads have been reduced to the limit and similar suits have dwindled away since the government resolved to adopt the plan of trying to adjust all grievances that can possibly be adjusted out of court. This has cut off a very profitable field for many lawyers.

It is said, too, that the people have been more disposed to adjust their differences against one another without employing lawyers and this has cut off another big source of revenue for young and old lawyers.

Some even predict that the war will result in the dismissal of much pending litigation, and while the struggle lasts there will be very short pickings for attorneys and less business for the courts to transact.

WIDOWS AND MINORS PENSIONS.

I am prepared to make applications for widows' and minors' pensions for those whose husbands and fathers served in the war with Spain and Philippine insurrection, and also widows of soldiers of the Civil War who were married prior to June 27, 1905, and also re-married widows.

Adj. Gen. Clark Suggests Fund to Provide Newspapers For the Boys In Service In Camps

Writing to the chairman of the County Council of Defense, Adj- Gen. H. C. Clark says concerning the desire of the boys over there to hear from home:

"Outside of letters from home, nothing adds so much to the contentment of our soldiers in the field as the reading of the home paper. It keeps them in touch with the folks back home and I know from my own experience how greatly they look forward to its coming. I had a letter the other day from one of the boys who served as one of my orderlies on the Mexican border in 1916 and at my headquarters while I was with the Missouri troops at Camp Doniphan last year, in which he said that he not only read every word of the home paper I had been sending him, but he even read the advertisements.

"Would it not be possible for your organization to see to it that copies of your local papers are sent to at least a few of the boys serving with every unit in the army? Of course, it would be preferable to every man to have a copy of one of his home papers, but if this cannot be done, if a few papers are sent to a company or other unit, they will be passed around; they will all see it. The cost would not be great and I have been wondering if you could not raise a small fund in each community to meet the expense. It means so much to these boys, I hope you will undertake it."

These soldiers will be chosen from the 13,000,000 Americans who are 32 to 45 years, and 18 to 21 years old.

These 13,000,000 men the country calls upon to register for Selective Service on September 12.

Each must appear before the registration board of the district wherein he lives, state certain facts about himself, and receive his registration card.

Speed is the need of the hour. Quick registration means a quick victory over the Hun. The War Department will make this huge registration in a single day.

Each man subject to registration will do his part, his special duty, if he goes promptly and honestly to his registration board and registers.

Speed the work Find out where you register before the day. Don't let anything, big or little, prevent the performance of this most important duty of your life.

Honesty, conscience, patriotism, and necessity command the fulfilment of your registration duty.

Nothing exempts a man of the ages stated from registration. Regardless of physical defect, regardless of business or domestic circumstances and conditions, he must register.

The man who waits is a slacker. The man who evades is a felon.

Says Ducking for Shelter Holes Is a Wonderful Pastime In France

A letter that will be interesting to many here is the following one written by Fred Phillips, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Phillips of Colville, Wash. Young Phillips is the eldest grandson of Mrs. S. J. Miller of South Mulberry street and a nephew of Fred Miller living northwest of the city. He enlisted under Captain Dale Drain at Spokane, Wash. He has been in France since last January and on the firing line since June 1.

"France, July 30.

"Dearest Parents: Will try to scratch you a few lines. I no more than get started when I hear a shell running and have to make a slide for shelter or have to jump up to fire the guns. We are kept pretty busy just advancing or trying to keep up to the boches. If we keep them going like we are now we will soon have them back to Berlin. General Pershing says it is to be heaven, hell or home by Christmas. I think we have had pretty near enough hell, so think it will be heaven or home. We sure have been having disagreeable weather; rain every day. We wade in this clay up to our knees and haven't seen the sun hardly a whole day since we have been at the front. We advanced to a new position last night and received a warm reception, as a big shell dropped on the road right in front of us (censored). It sure is comical to watch a bunch of guys duck for holes when a shell lights close by. We are like ostriches; when we get our heads put out of sight we think we are safe. We get quite a lot of fun out of it joshing one another about how quick one 'gets gone' and the wonderful slides for life we make. It is like sliding into the home plate. There is sure plenty going on right now. A shell just took the top off of our Y. M. C. A. building up the road. We are expecting one with our address on every minute. Our steel derby and our gas masks are our best friend here. I just got through pulling the trigger. We sent the kaiser ten high explosives for his supper. * * * This isn't a very neat looking letter, but my hands are all greasy; have to jump up and fire a shot about every three or four minutes.

What Home Fires Are.

Keep the home fires burning. By keeping the home fires burning means to keep up your lick in the business world. The merchant who fails to keep up his stock of goods, who lets his service to the public fall down, who fails to push his business and advertise that he is on earth, is letting his home fires burn low. To sit back in a corner and insist that "we can't do anything on account of the war" is one sure way to keep the war going a long time. The sinews of war are supplied by keeping the home fires burning. — Osborne Farmer.

Thus far the United States has loaned dto the Allied governments for war purposes $6,492,040,000. The Allies are now borrowing from us $10,000,000 a day.

How Long Must I Suffer From the Pangs of Rheumatism?

Is there no real relief in sight?

Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered.

Science has proven that your Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons from your blood. This explains why liniments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they cannot possibly reach these germs which infest your blood by the millions.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. Try it to-day, and you will find yourself at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. You can get valuable advice about the treatment of your individual case by writing to the Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. D, Atlanta, Ga.
